

Stan Jeffress

Stan is a learning and development professional with more than fifteen years experience in a variety of roles that include: Training Manager for a California-based university, Project Consultant for an international talent management company and a Project Manager for an e-learning service provider. If he's learned one thing it's that the combination of strategy and technology enables performance. One without the other is a waste of time and money.

A presenter at such conferences as Sloan-C, ICT-Singapore and Lilly-West, Stan is also a former Board member of the local chapter of the Association of Talent Development. He is currently a Principal at vector612, a learning technology consulting firm and he holds a Master's degree in Human Resource Management.

Stan lives in South Park with his wife Jen and their two daughters. He enjoys working on their old house and spending time outdoors. Stan can be reached at 619-972-6178 or stanjeffress@gmail.com.
